Prayers

This week we pray especially for members of the royal family as they combine their public role with mourning the death of a family member. This week pray for the various harvest services that will be held in the Benefice over the coming weeks. Give thanks to God for all that he has provided. Pray for the food bank volunteers who seek to help those who do not have enough food.

News and Events

About the Queen

In our churches are sheets for the national Book of Condolence which you may wish to sign. You are also welcome to come to Morning Prayer on weekdays (see Diary) and to a special service of thanksgiving at 6pm on 16 Sept in Loddon (HT).

Marmalade House service

Before Covid Alison Ball led a short monthly service for the residents of Marmalade House in Kittens Lane. They are people with moderate learning difficulties, so the service was simple, with little songs and choruses that are often associated with children's services. Alison doesn't have capacity to re-start the service, but Marmalade House have asked if someone might be able to do so. Could it be you? Or you and a friend? Plenty of help is available for putting together suitable material if you are willing to have a go at leading it. For more information contact Alison on 01508 528126, email ball880am@btinternet.com

Harvest in the Chet Valley

Details of this year's services are in the Diary. Harvest may not be of direct significance to many of us, but we all eat the results of someone's harvest. Let's take time to thank God for his provision even though so many harvests are threatened by climate change.

Monday Mardles

This is likely to be cancelled on Mon 19 Sept.

Loddon Band Concert

Looking ahead, there will be a concert by Loddon Band in Holy Trinity church on 15 October. Tickets cost £9 (to include the usual excellent interval refreshments) and are available from Val Counter on 01508 520702, email valancounter@gmail.com

Loddon Church Away Day

The Away Day on 22 October will be held at Raveningham Barn. If you usually come to church in Loddon, please plan to come to the Away Day. We will be looking at how the church is getting on, and making plans for the future.

Prayer of thankfulness for Queen Elizabeth II

O Lord our Heavenly Father, Almighty and Everlasting God; we remember before you our late Sovereign lady Queen Elizabeth, in thankfulness for the blessings which you have bestowed upon us by her reign; for the example she set of unwearied devotion to duty; for her steadfast courage in times of war and anxiety; and for the love and loyalty borne to her by a great family of people in all parts of the world. And we pray that you give us grace that, having these mercies in remembrance, we may with one heart and one mind set forward the welfare of this land and Commonwealth, and hasten the coming of your kingdom of peace and goodwill among all people through Jesus Christ our Lord.
