Rev'd Alison has heard that she has been successful in the application for funding from the 'Sharing the Good News Fund' from the Diocese and that Martin has persuaded the Methodists that Xalt! is worth funding. So we now have the money we need for Xalt! to start. Now hoping to be up and running for the last Friday of April (first Friday of the Summer term) Volunteers to help are still wanted so if you would like to help or know someone who might be interested then contact either Alison or Genny.
